How do I become a member of Paperchasers Ink?

Its easy, all you have to do is, go to the website see the button (become a member) in the menu, fill out the membership form and that's it. The only things that you need to have to join is tattoos and like urban culture.

What happens next?

We will look over your form and if its all ok then your page on the website will be setup with all your photos, bio and interviews. If your membership form is not done how we need it to be then we will contact you and let you know what you have missed out.

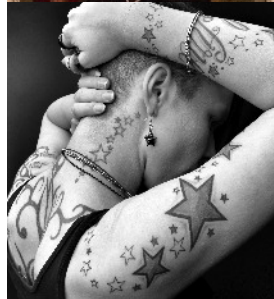

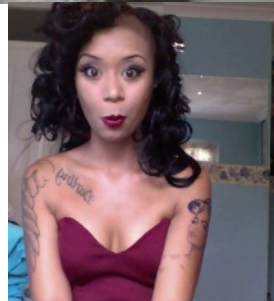

How much do I have to pay to join?

Nothing, our membership is all free, thats how we do it! We dont think that you should pay to be apart of the movement

Can I get featured in the magazines?

Yes, there are a couple of ways that you can get in the mag. one is to be out there pushing the movement by whatever way you can, from that we will see what you are doing and might pick you to get a mini feature to show you the love back.

You can also book get us to do a write about what ever you want, the other way is pay for a full feature and get your membership

Do I have to live in the UK to become a member?

No, it don't matter where in the world you are! We are a international magazine that is based in the UK, we love everyone from all over the world who are inked and urban, but our UK members always come 1st to us and do get a little more from us like, event invites, photo shoot deals, tattoo shop deals, giveaways, full features offers and stuff like that.

How do I submit my photos to the magazine?

You can send us your photos anytime you want by submitting them on the website.

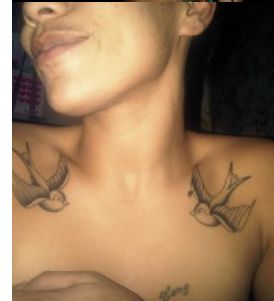

What kind of photos can I send in?

Send us what ever you want. We want to see some pics of you as your getting inked, you out having a good time, your portfolio, sexy ink pics, you with your tattoo artist, whatever you want, see the full info on the website about submission's, CLICK HERE

Can I submit content like news and stories to be featured in the mag?

Yes, we want all of our members to be apart of each issue by submitting content, so even if you dont want a full feature you can still send in your news, stories, crazy photos and letters about the last issue and more. CLICK HERE to submit something now
